DRCSU-Election 2022-2023 Date:24th January 2023

This is brought to the notice of all concerned with the DRCSU Election 2022-2023 that there shall be an Electoral Debate on 27th January 2023 from 11:00 am to 12:00 noon in Rangshala. This Electoral Debate is a forum for the Presidential candidates to seek vote and support for themselves. The candidates contesting elections are expected to be present for the event. The candidates must adhere to provisions of Lyngdoh Commission Report with reference to their speech wherever applicable. In particular the following provisions from the report are indicated here for strict compliance by the candidates.

- No candidate shall indulge in, nor shall abet, any activity, which may aggravate existing differences or create mutual hatred or cause tension between different castes and communities, religious or linguistic, or between any group(s) of students.
- Candidates shall refrain from criticism of all aspects of private life, not connected with the public activities of the other candidates or supporters of such other candidates. Criticism of other candidates, or their supporters based on unverified allegations or distortion shall be avoided.
- There shall be no appeal to caste or communal feelings for securing votes. Places of worship, within or without the campus shall not be used for election propaganda.

All the staff and students are invited to the event.

Format

- Each presidential candidate shall have a speaking time of 5+1minutes.
- After all candidates have spoken we would invite questions from the students and ask the panel of candidates to respond within a stipulated time.

Audience is expected to cooperate and do not hinder anyone's speech, any such disobedience shall be dealt under disciplinary proceedings.
