EVENT SUMMARY

The first of the series of Alumni Conversations was held on 20 October, 2023 with Ms. Parul Jain, Assistant Director at the Ministry of Agriculture Farmers Welfare. It was organized by Éclat, the Economics Association of Daulat Ram College, University of Delhi in the college's Conference Hall. The event was a wholesome and heartfelt moment for the alumna, the faculties, and the students wherein the audience got to interact with the esteemed alumna and the students were reminiscent of Ms. Parul Jain's college days.

Navya and Palak, who lightened up the room with their energy, were the hosts of the day. The commencement of the event took place with a felicitation of Ms. Parul Jain by our professors, Miss Pooja Sharma and Miss R. Ahalya, with a plant. A warm welcome was extended by Eclat- the Vice President, Jhalak Dhandhanian, and the General Secretary, Priya Singhal. Miss Pooja Sharma noted that it was a moment of pride for us to host the guest and how she was a reflection of the students and the teachers.

And finally, Ms. Parul Jain took the floor. The conversation started with her asking students about their experience at college. From here, she took us through her journey from Daulat Ram College to Oxford University to the Indian Economic Services to currently serving as the Assistant Director at the Ministry of Farmers Welfare. She laid emphasis on how the experiences throughout all these years have served as great learnings, ultimately bringing out the best of her as an individual. Miss Parul shared anecdotes from her college days. She was an active member of Optima, the Placement Cell, and the Debating Society among many others. This aided her in pushing herself to do a little better every time.

Miss Jain shared tips with the students to thrive and succeed in college. She answered questions about choosing the right career path. She beautifully said that the answer lies within us. This was followed by an engaging Q&A session with the intriguing personality. Students asked questions about her work at the Ministry, and her experience at Oxford University to state a few. The Co-President of Éclat, Aadya Sharma extended a vote of thanks to Ms. Parul for her time and the audience for their patience.

High Tea was organized for our guest upon which the faculty of the Economics Department and our college's Principal, Prof. Savita Roy had constructive discussions to uplift the college's potential. And it was finally time to bid adieu to our guest, Ms. Parul Jain but everyone created memories that they would hold on to for long.
